Process for Participants to obtain Continuing Education credits:

- Learning outcomes and course objectives for each curriculum may be found on franklincovey.com.
- Referring to this information prior to attending the course is suggested
- Participants must sign in and out on the CEU roster each day of the workshop. They must physically sign their signature. (required by all accreditations)
- Participants must fill out the CEU roster completely and legibly, including name, address, phone number and email address.
- Please return the CEU Roster to FranklinCovey's corporate office
FranklinCovey Co.
2200 West Parkway Blvd.
Attn: Feedback Operations MS 0215
SLC, Utah 84119
- The roster must include the name of the presenter, workshop title, course date(s), City, State, and company sponsor if the workshop was an on-site event.
- Once the roster has been received, the completed roster is entered into our Continuing Education database. (Please allow approximately 2-3 weeks after roster has been received)
- Once the roster has been entered into the database the participant will immediately receive an email to the address they provided on the roster. This email will contain a link.
- The participant will click on the link provided in the email. The link will guide them through a Post Assessment (short questionnaire) regarding the course they attended. Completing the Post Assessment is a requirement and must be completed to be eligible for continuing education credits.
- Once the Post Assessment has been completed the participant will immediately receive a PDF copy of their Continuing Education credit. The PDF may be saved or printed for participant's convenience.
- If you have any questions, please contact our Continuing Education department at (888) 868-1776 or info@franklincovey.com.
